Maurice - Invitation to Snowdonia - Visit to North Wales - American Visitors. I am very sorry for what you say about my not writing anything startling; because it shows that . you are beginning to Judge me in part upon the reports of others. There arc some people whom I must startle, if I am to do any good. But to startle the majority of good and sensible men, or to startle, so as to disgust at once a majority of any sort, are things which I most earnestly should wish to avoid. At the same time, I do strongly object on principle to the use of that glozing, unnatural, and silly language (for so it is in us now), which men use one after another till it becomes as worn as one of the old shillings. Dr. Arnold. THE winter of 1856, spent at Farley Court, a lovely spot in Swallowfield parish, adjoining to and overlooking Eversley, was a bright and happy one. The long rest in Devonshire had told on him, and now living on high ground, and in a dry house, acted as a tonic to him as well as to his family, and infused fresh life into his preaching and his parish work. The old incubus of the About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is...
