Joaquin Reinoso, peaceful farmer and the first to flee Yangana for the jungle for having executed vengeance upon an abusive government official, is followed in his path by the inhabitants of whole town, who have also decided to begin a new life. Resentment of social injustice has exploded during a communal festival, catalyzed inadvertently - or imprudently - by a slightly ridiculous cultural act by Vicente Munoz, the freethinker, reflecting Rojas thesis that literature is never an abstract or gratuitous game, but rather always capable of exercising social influence, although not always...
