Both are offering him some unique opportunities, but before Bobby can do anything, he's got to do an odd job for his friend Dotty Shannon, a retired porn star with a past that just won't fade away. It isn't long before Bobby realizes he's entangled in a dangerous triangle of friendship, romance and business. The situation becomes more complicated and the choices more desperate when outsiders and old familiar faces start popping up, asking questions and making threats. Everybody's got an agenda they aren't sharing with Bobby, and the only way out is to trust his instincts and experience, even if it means breaking the law and using deadly force to stay alive....
