HOW TO READ AN ORAL POEM

University of Illinois Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, How to Read an Oral Poem, John Miles Foley, Though they appear diverse, Homer's "Odyssey" and slam poetry from contemporary urban America both draw from the well of oral tradition. This unique, practical, and user-friendly guide explores the cultural contexts of verbal art to provide more-than-textual methods for understanding the structure, principles, and social applications of oral poetry. Using dozens of examples, including a North American slam poet, a Tibetan...
