Excerpt: . . . 11 losses by Hurricane Andrew and damaged homes and power lines, making our streets impassable. We remain severely impacted by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. We have sharp increases in enrollment of students into the public and private child care centers, Head Start, schools, colleges, and universities throughout Baton Rouge. Our education officials have worked around the clock to get children back in school as quickly as possible. Our city-parish is also experiencing increases in requests for economic assistance through our Division of Human Development and Services. This office is working to assist families, process emergency unemployment claims, and recruit workers for FEMA to assist with the needs assessments of hurricane survivors. One of the most obvious impacts of the displacement of people from New Orleans and South Louisiana to Baton Rouge has been our increase in traffic. We estimate more than 250, 000 additional people in Baton Rouge based on formulas for traffic counts that have shown a 35-to 40-percent increase in traffic on our streets, causing frequent gridlock...
