Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Nineteenth Biennial Report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of Montana: 1926 Growth is the law of life. When we cease to grow, we It begin to die. It is a matter of progress or regress. We cannot move backward the hands of time. Retrenchment is wise when conditions permit, but it must be shown that we are on the wrong course before we turn backward. It must be shown that the ship cannot proceed to her goal before we begin to throw overboard the cargo. True economy is always wise, but the negro who conceived the brilliant idea of saving his oats by feeding his mule on greater and greater quantities of sawdust found that when he had reached the point of maximum economy, that is, when he fed only on sawdust, the mule died. If he had been a more observing individual, if he had checked up on his experiment from time to time, he would have found as soon as he started the mixture that the mule began to lose his power to pull. Economy that limits the activities of the school to the Three R s, that fails to recognize the individual differences of children, that neglects to provide healthful surroundings in which they may grow and work, that fails to recognize their mental and physical limitations as well as their points of power, that fails to provide equal educational opportunities for all the children trained at public expense, that refuses to recognize that it takes a longer time and more skill to perform a bigger and harder job, that allows educational energy and educational enthusiasm to work without competent direction,...
