Excerpt: .those mistaken young fellows, who think to shine by an impious or immoral licentiousness, shine only from their stinking, like corrupted Hesh in the dark. Without this purity, you can have no dignity of character; and, without dignity of character it is impossible to rife in the world. You must be respectable, if you will be respected. I have known people slattern away their character, without really polluting it; the consequence of which has been, that they have become innocently contemptible; their merit has been dimmed, their pretensions unregarded, and all their views defeated. Character must be kept bright, as well as clean. Content yourself with mediocrity in nothing. In purity of character, and in politeness of manners, labour to excel all, if you wish to equal many--Adieu 1 LETTER LXXXVII. A proper Degree of Confidence in Company recommended.
